RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

- 2022- Principal Investigator, Westmont College
 Study: Formerly Incarcerated Individuals' – and Prison Reentry Professionals' – Experiences with and Perspectives on Prison Reentry
- Designed and implemented a mixed-methods study exploring: 1) How can we better promote the successful reintegration of formerly incarcerated individuals? 2) How do individuals successfully desist from crime? and 3) What changes in social structures, societal institutions, and social programs are needed to: a) reduce the numbers of individuals who get involved in the criminal justice system, and b) promote the successful reintegration of individuals post-release? I conducted 83 in-depth, qualitative interviews with, as well as administered 15 surveys to, research participants (75 formerly incarcerated individuals and 8 reentry professionals).
- 2008-2011 Principal Investigator, University of Michigan
 Study: Students' Experiences of Personal Growth After Trauma
 Faculty Advisors: Daniel Saunders, Karin Martin, Beth Glover Reed, and Jeffrey Morenoff
- Designed and implemented a mixed methods study exploring: 1) how individuals who have suffered violent victimization or other forms of trauma successfully recover from these experiences; 2) the impact of cumulative adversity on trauma recovery and posttraumatic growth; and 3) how traumatic life events become a positively transformative experience in the lives of (some) trauma survivors. Conducted 46 in-depth, qualitative interviews with, as well as administered six quantitative surveys to, research participants.
- 2005-2007 Principal Investigator, University of Michigan
 Study: Vicarious Traumatization Among Staff Working with Survivors of Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault
 Faculty Advisor: Karin Martin
- Designed and implemented a qualitative study exploring: 1) the ways in which working closely with trauma survivors affects the lives of helping professionals; 2) how staff members cope with the demands of their job; and 3) how a direct service organization may more effectively address issues of secondary trauma and burnout among its staff members. Conducted 29 in-depth, qualitative interviews, engaged in participant observation within the agency, and coded and analyzed data.
- 2006 Research Assistant, University of Michigan
 Study: Safe Havens: Supervised Visitation and Safe Exchange Demonstration Initiative
 Principal Investigators: Daniel Saunders, Cris Sullivan, and Richard Tolman
- Coded and analyzed qualitative interviews of formerly battered women participating in a supervised child visitation/exchange program, as part of a national evaluation funded by the U.S. Department of Justice's Office on Violence Against Women (Grant #2003-WT-BX-K044).

2005-2006 Research Assistant, University of Michigan
Study: Jail Overcrowding and Recidivism Among Domestic Violence, Controlled Substance, and Non-Payment of Child Support Offenders
Principal Investigators: Jeffrey Morenoff and Benjamin Hansen

Collected and analyzed quantitative data regarding the consequences of jail overcrowding upon sentencing outcomes, early release from jail, and the likelihood of recidivism for offenders in Washtenaw County, Michigan.

CLINICAL AND OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2004 Legal Advocate Intern, SafeHouse Center, Ann Arbor, MI

Advocated for survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault within the legal system. Monitored court proceedings to identify areas for system change. Conducted crisis counseling with survivors immediately after assault. Co-facilitated support group in county jail for incarcerated survivors of domestic violence.

2002-2003 Case Manager, Big Brothers Big Sisters Program, Family Service Agency, Santa Barbara, CA

Conducted intake interviews with clients, families, and volunteers. Assessed client needs. Paired at-risk youth with adult mentors. Provided case management services to clients, families, and volunteers. Made appropriate referrals.

2001-2002 Development Coordinator, Devereux, Santa Barbara, CA

Identified and researched potential funding sources for programs for clients with developmental disabilities. Cultivated relationships with donors, foundations, and corporations. Wrote grant proposals. Coordinated grant management and stewardship activities. Prepared fundraising reports.

2001 Case Manager Intern, Teen Court Program, Council on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse, Santa Barbara, CA

Conducted client intakes and assessments. Facilitated court hearings for first-time juvenile offenders. Taught classes on anger management and tobacco education. Facilitated a process group for adolescents. Provided case management services to clients and their families.

2000 Residential Counselor/Case Manager, Noah's Anchorage Youth Shelter, Santa Barbara, CA

Provided a safe, therapeutic home life for youth. Supervised client activities. Counseled crisis-line callers, providing appropriate referrals. Conducted family counseling sessions with clients and their families. Assessed client needs. Developed, implemented, and evaluated treatment plans for youth. Provided case management services.

2000 Chaplain Intern—Forensics Unit, San Francisco General Hospital, San Francisco, CA

Counseled patients/inmates. Served as chaplain/counselor to deputies, nurses, and hospital personnel. Led two chapel services. Served as chaplain in emergency room for one night.
