

Westmont College History Department Curriculum Map (current)

	Primary Sources	Argumentation	Global Awareness	Vocation
Program Learning Outcomes	Students will be able to use primary sources effectively.	Students will be able to construct sound arguments	Students will be able to explain how Christians should relate to the World	(2016-17) Students will be able to discuss the relationship between their Christian Liberal Arts education and their vocational pursuits.
Where are the Learning Outcomes met? I Introduced D Developed M Mastered	I: HIS 99, and lower division classes D: All upper-division courses M: HIS198	I: HIS 99 and lower division classes D: All upper-division courses M: HIS198	I, D: HIS10 D, M: upper-division courses	I: HIS 99 D, M: HIS198
How are they assessed?	Direct method: HIS198 Research Papers	Direct method: HIS198 Research Papers	History 10 assessment	Undetermined
Benchmark	80% of students demonstrate good or superior analysis.	75% of students fall in good or superior categories	75% of students fall in the good or superior categories.	Undetermined.
Link to the Institutional Learning Outcomes	Critical Thinking and Competence in Written Communication	Critical Thinking and Competence in Written Communication	Christian Understanding and Global Awareness	Christian Understanding