

Following the Seven-Year Program Review Report

Once a department has completed its Seven-Year Program Review Report, it moves on to the first year of the next seven-year cycle. This includes:

- A response from a three-person program review team (comprised of the external reviewer and two members of the Program Review Committee);
- Discussions with the Provost, Dean of Curriculum and Educational Effectiveness, and your program review team;
- Submission of the Action Plan and a Multi-Year Assessment Plan to the Dean by August 15.
- Academic Senate's review and discussion of the departmental Action Plan. The department chair or representative will be invited to the Academic Senate for this discussion.
- A review of selected Action Plan items by the Strategic Planning Committee.
